WELCOME TO MISSION SUNDAY!

Today is the day that our entire contribution is dedicated to our missions. We've had a great few weeks of focus on our mission trips. Thank you for your prayers, your time, and your financial support for our missions program here at Mount Comfort. In addition to what you've heard over the past few weeks of our mission trips, we support many other areas, where we try to help change lives. Those that work in these areas are often changed in the process as well. I reached out to Leah Williams, asking how her work has changed her life.

"The Lord has revealed His heart as El Roi ("the God Who Sees Me," Genesis 16:13) more deeply as I've worked with survivors of sexual exploitation. Knowing this part of His character has taught me how to weep with the brokenhearted, protect the vulnerable, perceive the marginalized, and recognize each individual's inherent value as a child of the Most High God."

Leah has a great heart for this work. I am thankful for her commitment, as well as many others you have heard from over the past few weeks.

Have a great mission Sunday!
David Gretzmier

And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.
