MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: FAMILY BONDS

Summer offers a unique opportunity to hit pause on the busy routines of the school year and refocus on something very important to us all —our families.

With about six weeks left before the school bells ring again, now is the perfect time to break the mold (if you have not already), be intentional, and create meaningful memories together.

Whether it's a spontaneous day trip, a family devotion around the table, or a backyard campout, these moments can sow the seeds of lasting family traditions.

Parents, grandparents, and even extended family—reach out, make plans, and prioritize connection. Let this summer be a season where faith is lived out at home, laughter is shared freely, and the bonds of family grow stronger than ever.

NEWS AND NOTES

PULPIT MINISTER INPUT SURVEY

After much prayer, discussion, and reflection, the eldership at Mt. Comfort has made the decision to transition to a new voice from the pulpit with a planned start date of January 2026. We believe it is important to survey the congregation to gauge several areas that the pulpit minister affects as we plan the job description and assemble the application review and interview team. Please take time to complete this survey so that we can have a wide amount of input from our wonderful congregation.

If you would prefer a paper form, please pick one up on the welcome desk and hand it to an elder when completed. Thank you so much!

Here is the online form: <https://form.jotform.com/ministersearchmccoc/pulpit>

The DEADLINE for submission on this input survey is Saturday, July 19.
