PULPIT MINISTRY: NATHAN JORGENSON

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Paul wasn't touting himself, he was simply saying he had faithfully walked thru the doors God opened for him. Twenty-four years ago God opened the door for me to come to North St and begin my role as the pulpit minister. It has been my great privilege to share with you what the Lord has shown me each week from His Word. The joy of getting to know you (even while getting beat on the golf course by Travis or Gary), the joy of growing as God's family together, of participating in times of joy and sorrow with you, are memories that Lynne and I will always carry with us. Lynne has been my best friend, honest critic, and the love of my life for over 48 years. I could never have prepared for all the sermons, classes or counseling sessions without her by my side. I thank the Lord for her and you all, for your kindness, love and support. May God continue to guide us thru the next door He opens.

Glenda Verkler (Terry Verkler's mother) continues to battle cancer. She was to return to City of Hope in Zion on December 13th for follow up consultation and testing. Please pray for a good outcome and continued healing.

Caleb Gaines (Gail Kennedy's grandson) remains in ICU at Children's Hospital in Little Rock. His colon was successfully removed. His heart rate remains high and he still has pain. His white blood count has gone up, which can be a sign of infection. Although his lungs are loosening up, he is unable to cough up the fluid and has to have his lungs suctioned. Please pray there is no infection and that his lungs will clear.
