MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: MISSION SUNDAY

Mission Sunday! I love this time of the year, as it pushes me into nostalgia mode for all things missions. My mind has been wandering back to the various mission trips I have been a part of. My first RFC trip to Scotland way back in the early 90's, 35 years ago. That 6 weeks made me fall in love with working with a team, traveling and short term missions. I think of the Belize trips to run a VBS for 400 kids in the middle of a rainforest; spring break to serve in Mexico; medical and construction trips to Honduras; breaking atheist and agnostic soil to plant seeds in the Czech Republic; evangelism and Bible study in Guyana—all trying to work together, and sound and look like Jesus. What a great ride. And a great big thank you to the church folks over the last 35 years who made it happen. A big thanks for all you do to support missions at Mount Comfort!

In Him, Dave Gretzmier

Let's join together and support continued missions today!
