MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT: ELDER OF THE MONTH

Proverbs 6:9 says, "How long will you lie there, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest, so shall thy poverty come upon thee like a robber." My dad often quoted this passage to me when trying to get me out of bed during my teenage years.

Whenever my brother and I were getting into it, he also quoted 1 John 4:20, "He who does not love his brother who he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen."

These short lessons on life would often be ignored at the time but as I got older the quotes were often recalled and brought to remembrance the wisdom he was trying to teach.

Let us all celebrate this Sunday the resurrection of our Savior and King Jesus Christ and remember His teachings which lead to eternal life. Have a blessed week and try to pass along some wisdom when the opportunity comes along. You never know when a kind word will make someone's day.
